HISTORIC CELEBRATION

Observance of Washington's Centennial Anniversary.

MEETING OF THE CENTURIES

The Establishment of the Presn Seat of Government of the American Republic to Be Commemorated-A Proposed Meeting of Promiment Citizens.

What promises to become an importan and interesting movement, and one calculated to be of benefit to the District of Columbia, has just been inaugurated, and has met with flattering approval. It is a proposition to appropriately celebrate the closing of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth centuries, and the centennial anniversary of the establishment of the seat of Government at Washington, which will have to be done, of course, in the year 1900, with the exception of the closing of the present century, it being already suggested that this epoch be marked with appropriate exercises in the House of Represent atives on the night of December 31, 1899 The most important feature of the proposed celebrations will be that of the centennial anniversary of the establishment of the seat of Government at Wash-

> This great movement has been started This great movement has been started by W. S. McKesn, who has had consid-erable experience in promoting and hand-ling successfully some important public events. He was the promoter of the great Albany, N. Y., bicentennial cele-bration in 1884. Mr. McKean was at that time a resident of Albany and a news-paper man. Mr. McKean was also of-tically connected with the Coulon Conficially connected with the Cotton Cenicially connected with the Cotton Cen-tennial Exposition, which was held at New Orleans in 1835-34. He is a native of Washington, but for eighteen years pri-or to 1836, was a resident of both New York and New Jersey. As a citizen of the latter State he did much to develop Asbury Park, so well known among Washingtonians. Mr. McKenn was the > promoter and first manager of the Ath-letic Park on the Conduit Boad. To satisfy himself that his proposition to celebrate in 1986 was a good idea he has made a careful canvass of many of our leading citizens, and as an attest of approval below is given the names of the gentlemen interested, and who have pledged themselves to respond to an invitation to attend a meeting in a few days for the purpose of organization and the beginning of active preparations for Three Dectors in Consultation.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken." When you have a bad cold Dr. Inchnation would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr Reason would recommend it because is is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restor-

The Remains Interned at Glenwood Cemetery Today. The funeral of the late Alfred Schuck-

also vice consul of the Netherlands, was held this morning at 10:30 o'clock from Spear's undertaking establishment. Mr. W. L. Eiterich, president of the Bundeer Alter Society, officiated. The remains were encased in a mahognay casket, standing among a number of beautiful palms and covered with many elaborate floral tributes. Mr. Simon Wolf, who for thirty-four years was a friend of the deceased, spoke with great feeling of the sterling qualities and ability of the dead man. Mr. Wolf spoke as follows: "Our friend has gone to the realms of eternal sleep. The laws of nature have not been violated or outraged in thus be-ing summoned to the bourne from which it is said no one has ever returned. We who have been intimate with him from early childhood, and others for a half century, had no idea that the physical part was so near the portals of rest, for It was only a few days ago that I saw him and on his face was that same genial smile and heart and soul recognition that has characterized him ever since I knew has characterized him ever since I knew him. The brain was ever active and aglow, and I know of few men who were so thoroughly representative on all the lines that constitute literary refinement, soul elevation, and who possessed to the most eminent degree purer feelings of liberality and self-denial. To have known him thoroughly was to be impressed with the excellence of his character. Each and every one of us has been homored by his every one of us has been honored by his every one of us has been homored by his friendship. He sprang from noble stock, and members of his family have risen to world-wide recognition as authors. He himself was a ploneer in the field of Ger-man-American journalism and at the bar. and as a high type of the German-Amer ican representative.

"An eventful life has passed into his-tory. He saw the great republic of his choice rise and develop into world-widfame and recognition, and saw the land of his birth spring into power as a united factor on the chess-board of nations. He was honored by two governments with confidential relations, and as a citizen of Washington he enjoyed the esterm, love and confidence of one and all that came in contact with him. I am not here to speak of the future life; that does no come into my province. I know that in all that appertains to character, purity of conduct refinement of manner, and those thoughts which produce and constitute manhood, he was like a knight of old, 'saus peur, sans reproche.' "The flowers that are gathered around the coffin will soon fade and wither, but the exetics that adorned his life will bloom and spring forth constantly in the hearts of his friends and enrich our memory, and be a treasure more precious than the wealth of earth."

The room in which the services were held was well filled with sympathetic friends of the deceased and members of the Bundler Airer. The widow, accom-panied by her brother-in-law, Mr. Su-tro, and wife, who arrived from Philadelphia last Tuesday to attend her hus and through his illness, were present The palibearers were Messrs, H. Franc, F. Koch, W. L. Elterich, Anton Eber-Simon Wolf, E. A. L. Kerse and Drs. track and Hauseman. The interment Strack and Hauseman. The interment was made in Glenwood Cemetery. #### CITY BREVITIES.

A marriage license was issued yester-day at Baltimore to Clarence N. Burke, of Washington and C. Mazie Myers, of Baltimore.

William Reed, who was charged with violating section No. 4745 of the pension laws, was acquitted of the charge by a jury yesterday in Criminal Court No. 2. Detective McNamee yesterday arrested Lewis Robinson on a charge of stealing a silver water pitcher from Ella W. Lloyd, of 490 Louisiana Avenue, on Sep-tember 25. The pitcher is valued at $15. The explosion of a gasoline stove in the rear of a grocery store at the corner of Eleventh and P Streets about 6 o'clock last evening caused an alarm of fire to be turned in. Before the engines arrived the blaze had been extinguished.

Justice Hagner yesterday granted Mi-chael William Samelsburger an absolute divorce from his wife Ruth Samelsburger. The suit was commenced last April, Samelsburger alleging infidelity on the part of his wife as the cause of action. Walter Ford, a brother of Irving Ford who was hanged some time ago for the murder of Elsie Kreglo, was yesterday sentenced to imprisonment in the United States prison at Columbus, O., by Justice Bradley for terms aggregating thir teen years. Ford was charged with house breaking on four different indictments to all of which he pleaded guilty.

The arguments in the case of Mary Connor against the Washington and Georgetown Railroad for $10,000 damages, which has been on trial in the Circuit Court since Tuesday were concluded yesterday and the case given to the jury. No verdict was rendered be-fore the hour of the adjournment of the court and the jury was instructed to bring in a sealed verdict on Monday.

for a really healthy man

It isn't much trouble for a really healthy man to be good humored. Jollity and exhuberant health are a proverbial combination. The hearty man who is always laughing doesn't have any trouble with his digestion. It has been said that laughing makes people healthy. The truth is that health makes people laugh.

It is impossible to estimate the tremendous influence of health upon human character. A man with a headache will not be in a happy, contented frame of mind. A man who suffers from a weak stomach and an impaired digestion will sit and grumble through the best meal ever prepared. A bilious man who is not a bore, is deserving of a place in a museum. A nervous man who is not petulent and fault-finding is a curiosity. All these conditions lead to grave diseases, when the victim becomes not only disagreeable, but dependent as well. A wise wife will realize that while the old saying that a "man's heart is in his stomach," is not literally true, it is a fact that his stomach sweetens or sours his character according as it is healthy or unhealthy. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best of medicines for the conditions described. It makes the weak stomach strong, the impaired digestion perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and tones the nerves. It tears down half-dead, inert tissues and replaces them with the firm muscular tissues of health. It builds new and healthy nerve fibres and brain cells. It dissipates nervousness and melaucholy and imparts mental elasticity and courage.

and healthy nerve fibres and brain cells. It dissipates nervousness and melancholy and imparts mental elasticity and courage. It is the best of all known medicines for nervous disordets.

"Through your skillful treatment I am once more a well min," writes J. N. Arnold, Esq., of Gandy, Logun Co. Nebr., "I suffered for years and could not find relief until I commenced taking your Golden Medical Discovery. I suffered with constipation and torpidity of liver which resulted in irritation of the prostate and inflammation of the bladder. I had only taken one bottle when I found great relief. The medicine has effected a permanent cure."

THINGS THEATRICAL.

Charles Prohman is bringing his Empire Theater Company to this city for six nights and two matinees. The engagement will be played at the National The ater, beginning Monday evening, and the play in which the company is to appear will be "The Conquerors," a four-act his torical drama by Paul M. Potter. This piece achieved extraordinary success in New York city last season, crowding the Empire Theater during the entire period the organization was at the home house and creating more discussion, perhaps than have most plays of recent produc tion in this country. The background o the drama is the Franco-Prussian war though Mr. Potter, in telling the story has not confined himself entirely to dra matte material, but has wandered off in the side paths and culled the best ideas he could find in comedy, comic opera, bal-lad music, and the ballet. There is said to be a great variety of matter used in the offering, and it is supposedly han-dled so cleverly that, nothwithstanding its kaleidoscopic character, the strength and power of the story is not weakened nor in any way damaged.

It is claimed that "The Conquerors" is the best-acted play in which the Empir organization has yet appeared. It gav William Faversham, the leading man the company, the finest opportunity has had in his career, and nothing the most liberal praise was bestowed for and evening until 10 p. m. This suggestion his admirable impersonation of the wild and reckless young Prussian officer who was made in order to give an opportunity and reckless young Prussian officer who is the hero of the piece. Mr. Faversham remains in his former position, and wil have for his companion at the head of the cast this year Jessie Millward, whom Mr. Frohman secured during his Summer visit to England. The other members of the organization, all of whom will be faar to theatergoers, are J. H. Ben-b, Joseph Wheelock, jr.; Guy Stand-W. H. Crompton, G. H. Howard, E. Y. Backus, George Osborne, ir : William Sumner, John Armstrong, George Pierce William Workman, Jessie Busley, May Robson, Eleanor Moretti, Lallian Thurgate. Clara Bloodgood, Madeline Mann and Helen Comstock

Stuart Robson has always had the reputation of surrounding himself with a talgagement, which is to be inaugurated replete with new and up to date ideas oluded in the organizations. Confirma-tion of this is found in a list submitted, in which the names of Marie Burroughs, Mrs. Stuart Robson, Maude Granger, Gertrude Perry, Theodore Hamilton. George Pauncefort, Harold Russell and Theodore Habcock appear. With such a brilliant coterie of artists as an environ-ment it is not to be wondered at that Stuart Robson and "The Meddler" are said to have succeeded in scoring one of the most substantial successes of the present theatrical period. Wherever the plece has been presented up to the pres-ent time it has been greeted by the fashionable cult invariably found to charac-terize Mr. Robson's audiences, and who, by almost uninterrupted laughter, testify the sincerity of their appreciation of Augustus Thomas's epigrammatical play. The sale of seats for Mr. Robson's en-gagement at the Columbia has been more than satisfactory.

Grand opera, given with a full chorus, complete orchestra, scenery, costumes, properties and all the paraphernalia that goes with the luxury of hearing a musical production, will be the enter-talnment provided by the International company next week at the Lafayette quare. For the past number of years the publle has had thrust upon it any quantity of make-believe and inferior presenta-tions, but it can safely be promised that the Internationals will give adequate return for the expenditures made. In the first place, the celebrated prima dons, Clementine De Vere, heads the list of artists. Next to be taken into account is Mme. Selma Kronold, who is said to be the best dramatic soprano in Ameri-ca. Signor Panblanchi, the tenor, and

George Mitchell, are strong parts of the roster, which follows: Sopranos: Clementine De Vere, Selma Kronold, Nedda Morisson, Mary H. Howe and Mary Roebuck; contraltos and mezzos, Eleanore Broadfoot, Louise En-gel and Amelia Fields; tenors, Salvo Panbianchi, George Mitchell, Thomas Panbianeni, George Mitchell, Thomas McQueen and Henry Gunson; baritones, Virgillo Bellati, H. "Although I am young, and have always been healthy, and blessed with a good appetite, yet, during the past six months, I have been affected-after I would eat a hearty meal-with a severe pain in the stomach, lasting for from one to three hours, causing me great distress Then again I would become suddenly dizzy, and almost fall, sometimes This would happen on the street, and cause me a good deai of annoyance The only relief I could get was the constant use of cathartics. About two months ago a friend gave me a small vial of Ripans Tabules, asking me to try them, as they had done him good. I did, and was so pleased with the result that I afterwards bought a supply, and up to the present time have had no further trouble. When I notice an indication of the old trouble, I take a Tabule, and

A burlesque extravaganza, something musual in a musical and comedy way, will enter upon a week's engagement at This attraction is said to be entirely ferent from anything on similar lines besides being original in conception gagement, which is to be inaugurated next Monday night at the Columbia Theater, when he will present Augustus Thomas's latest comedy. 'The Meddler,' the management, the usual 'first his cast will contain what is beyond question the greatest amalgamation of notable players that has heretofore been included in the organizations. Confirmation of this is found in a list submitted, tion of this burletta, specialties will be in troduced by Ben Harney and company Weston and Beasley; Hughes and Hughes Murray and Everett, Joseph Mitchell, and a number of others.

Jennie Yeamans, who has been for som time the reigning burlesque sensation of New York, will be the headliner next week at the Bijou. She will be followed by a strong combination of vaudeville cards, among them many who have made reputations in Gotham's continuous houses. The entire bill is promised to be of the first order and the result sh a series of good houses at Manager Grieves's little place of amusement.

Jefferson De Angelis, for many years one of the best and most popular of New York comedians, has forsaken his inte female operatic partners, Lillian Russell and Della Fox, to star this season on his own account. As far as Gotham is con-cerned, jolly "Jeff" De Angelis has al-ways been as popular a proposition as any manager could offer to the fickle public of the great capital. He is one of that group of American entertainers who, winning success, and consequently repu-tation, from the position of leading comedian at the Casino, has, following celebrated predecessors, taken unto himself the position and estate of one head-ing his own company.

Benjamin D. Stevens will be the manager of the new luminary and his organization, and no better man could be found. That he is the director and re-sponsible head of the De Angelis Opera Company should be evidence enough in itself that the new adventurer only have every opportunity for but that he will probably attain success. combination will present a new piece here on the week of October 4, at the Lafay
